

A growing Educational Therapy company is seeking a part-time Educational Therapist for in home, school-based, and in-office sessions.

Locations: Santa Monica, Brentwood, Pacific Palisades, Malibu, Topanga Canyon, Manhattan Beach, Beverly Hills, Bel-Air, West Los Angeles, Culver City, Venice, and Marina Del Rey.

Pay commensurate with degree, field experience, and performance.

The position entails a high-level of organization, communication with multidisciplinary team, exceptional writing skills and thorough knowledge of assessment.

An ability to provide quality intervention while maintaining confidentiality and professionalism is a must.

Clinicians will be providing one-on-one support providing academic/social-emotional interventions, as well as, cognitive interventions for children ages 3-18. Training will be provided when necessary and appropriate.

We are looking for clinicians who can build positive relationships with clients, their families, and other professionals in the community. Clinicians must be able to build rapport with clients, understand individualized learning needs and foster a motivation for learning and growth with clients.

Consistent supervision is offered for clinicians and it is important for clinicians to be open to feedback and training.

Our company believes in long-term relationships with its employees. Clinicians will have ongoing opportunities for training and exposure to new, evidence-based interventions and growth within company. We are looking for hard-working, caring, educated clinicians who want to grow with our team!

Qualifications:

- Must have Master's degree or higher in Education or Related Field
- Must be presently pursuing Educational Therapy degree or Certification
- Experience with social-emotional programs is a PLUS
- Experience with evidence based reading, math and cognitive programs is highly preferred
- Educational Therapist must be AET certified
- Prior Tutoring or Teaching Experience Required
- Must be available afternoons, evenings and/or weekends for at least 15-20 hours per week
- Client case load has the potential to grow as therapist is trained within the company
- Must have reliable transportation
- Must be able to pass background check

CONTACT: Lindsay @ lindsay@leadeducationla.com for more information on how to apply